(Only if required)

All Students:

VA Education Benefits only pay for classes that are degree-applicable, core subjects, and approved electives.

VA Education Benefits DO NOT PAY for minors that are not required to complete the degree program.

Undergraduate Students:

Undergraduate students are required to enroll in a minimum of 12 degree-applicable semester hours to receive the maximum amount of VA Education Benefits.

Graduate Students:

Graduate students are required to enroll in a minimum of nine degree-applicable semester hours to receive the maximum amount of their VA Education Benefits (certain graduate certification programs may be exempt from this).

Law school students are required to enroll in a minimum of 10 degree-applicable semester hours to receive the maximum amount of their VA Education Benefits.

If you cannot obtain a Degree Plan, you and your Advisor may submit a Plan of Study that must include a list of all approved courses required for your degree completion. A Plan of Study requires an advisor's signature. Should this plan change, you must provide VMS with an updated copy.
