

Online M.A. in Higher Education

Anchored in our departmental values of equity, ethics, inclusion, and social justice, the Master of Arts in Higher Education/Student Personnel (online) with an emphasis in Higher Education provides professional preparation for persons who are (or who will be) employed in the administration of various areas of postsecondary education. In addition to the regular broad-based 30-credit hour curriculum, the program also offers an intercollegiate athletics emphasis for those with future career plans focused on that part of higher education. Students in the program will develop the requisite skills, competencies, and dispositions to fulfill these leadership roles at a diversity of types of institutions serving a wide array of enrolled students. This degree program is delivered online.

Degree Requirements:

Complete a minimum of 30 hours of graduate credit as described in the Program of Study below (substitutions with the approval of the Faculty Director). Maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better on all graduate course work. Successfully complete a capstone portfolio project. Complete all course work within a six-year time limit.
