

JAMES O. EASTLAND COLLECTIONS
FILE SERIES 2: PUBLIC RELATIONS
SUBSERIES 1: PHOTOGRAPHS, NEGATIVES, & SLIDES

Twenty-seven boxes contain the photographs, negatives, and slides that comprise Subseries 1. The first twenty-two boxes hold photographs while Box 23 contains negatives and Box 24 stores two binders of slides and one microfiche.

Dating from the 1940s through 1978, the images contain portraits and candid shots of Senator Eastland and other noteworthy individuals; family; Mississippi constituents visiting the Washington, DC office; campaign activities; pictures of livestock, agriculture, and forestry; committee hearings; the signing of legislation; Joint Sessions of Congress; Eastland addressing and attending various events and functions; and trips abroad.

The container list for this particular subseries is presented in the form of a chart. Each row represents an image with column fields for box and folder numbers; descriptions (which include not only the image but also all attached documents and transcripts of all inscriptions); date; creator; image type (black and white, color, negative, etc.); size; and notes (information on condition and the quantity of duplicates available).

Photographs removed from manuscript files will carry information regarding the original location of the image (File Series, Subseries, Box, and Folder data). For cross reference purposes, each document file contains a removal sheet informing patrons of the existence of a photograph removed for preservation reasons and identifies the new locale in the Photographs subseries.

All images are in archival sleeves and folders. Boxes are located in a Cold Room which maintains temperature and humidity settings required by these formats. Patrons wishing access to these images must provide advance notice at least two business days prior to a visit so that curators may acclimate images to normal temperature & humidity settings before transporting boxes from a separate facility to the Special Collections Reading Room. There will be no exceptions to this policy.

The archives is currently digitizing all photographs in this subseries and slowly making them available online in the James O. Eastland Collection Photographs digital collection. This project will be completed by the end of 2015. In the mean time, researchers should examine the descriptions in the container list rather than relying exclusively on the digital collection.

The next morning early the other six boarded the boat after they had received a signal that the grew [sic] were being held at gun point. The Capt then took the boat, the above eight refugees and four crew members to the British Island of Long Key. They stayed on the island from the 22 until they were picked up by the U.S. Coast Guard and brought to Miami. The Captain and four crew members remained on the island. They radioed to Cuba and asked them if they wanted the boat. All of the five remaining on the island said they would return the boat to Cuba or if a crew could be sent for the boat. The captain and 3 men would like to come to the United States as refugees. Only the cook desired to return to Cuba and his family. The exact conversation between the Capt and the Cuban govt isnot known however it is believed all of the crew will return. There was no unusual incidents ocurred on this trip after the ship was seized. The gun was buried in the sand on Long Key after the U.S.C.G. plane was seen."
