

Jamie L. Whitten Collection

Series 6: Green Sheets

The Green Sheets series represents the original filing system of Representative Jamie Whitten's office and contains green carbon copies of outgoing office correspondence between 1961 and 1994. Although the information contained within is likely duplicated elsewhere within the collection, researchers seeking information on specific individuals may find this series useful due to its organizational system.

The files in the fifty-nine boxes are arranged chronologically by year. They are further subdivided alphabetically so that a letter of the alphabet holds all communications sent to individuals with surnames or organizations whose name begins with that letter. Other subdivisions may include locales, or categories such as out-of-state, out-of-district, members of Congress, or departments. Archivists removed all documents related to constituent case files and military academy appointments for privacy and confidentiality reasons. The series is missing 1976 files from P to Z.
