

Archives & Special Collection Brown Bag
“Women in Politics: The Archival Record in Special Collections”
4 September 2008

Finding aids for the collections discussed during this Brown Bag may be located at the following addresses:

Lily Thompson Collection at <http://purl.oclc.org/umarchives/MUM00446/>

Southern Women Legislators Collection at <http://purl.oclc.org/umarchives/MUM00422/>

League of Women Voters of Mississippi Collection at <http://purl.oclc.org/umarchives/MUM00261/>

The Presidential Debate Subject Guide describes publications, databases, websites, and archival resources useful to researchers interested in presidential debates and elections. It is available online at http://apollo.lib.olemiss.edu/center/subject_guide/debate/intro.

Archives & Special Collections Subject Guides which describe collections with politically-related material:

Politics & Government – Eighteenth & Nineteenth Centuries at http://www.olemiss.edu/depts/general_library/files/archives/guides/politics18and19.html

Politics & Government – Twentieth & Twenty-First Centuries at http://www.olemiss.edu/depts/general_library/files/archives/guides/politics20and21.html

Collections Related to Mississippians in the U.S. Congress at http://www.olemiss.edu/depts/general_library/files/archives/guides/congressional.html

For further information and assistance with political collections, please contact:

Leigh McWhite
Political Papers Archivist & Assistant Professor
(662) 915-1850
slmcwhit@olemiss.edu