SAP Portal

The screenshot displays the SAP Service Marketplace interface. At the top, a navigation bar includes a welcome message for Robert Seitz, a search bar, and links to 'Other Portals', 'Quick Links', and 'Help'. Below this is a secondary navigation bar with tabs for 'HOME', 'Solution Details', 'Consulting', 'Education' (which is active), and 'Communities'. The main content area is titled 'SAP Education' and features a sidebar on the left with a 'You are here:' breadcrumb trail and a list of links: 'Online Registration', 'SAP Project Team Training', 'SAP Consultant Education', 'SAP Global Certification Program', 'Support Knowledge Transfer', 'Delivery Options', 'Training Centers Worldwide', and 'Educational Services'. The main text area contains the heading 'SAP Education' followed by the subheading 'Managing Performance and Productivity'. It provides instructions on how to find a course, either 'On your own' using the 'Online Training Catalog' or 'Where you are' by selecting a country. A 'Spotlight' section lists four key programs: 'SAP Education Online', 'Global Education Course Portfolio for 2006 (SAP Project Team Training)', 'Consultant Academy and Certification Program for SAP NetWeaver 2004s / 2004', and 'Consultant Academy and Certification Program for mySAP ERP 2005, mySAP CRM 2005, mySAP SCM 2005, mySAP SRM 2005'. At the bottom, a footer section encourages users to visit 'SAP Training Centers Worldwide' for more information.
