- Discussion of Policy for Posthumous and In Memoriam Degrees policy changes
 - Recommendation that 2nd sentence under Posthumous Degree section should be moved into the following paragraphs (rather than follow the definition of the degree purpose).
 - Concern was expressed about the ability of departments to quantitatively assess 75% completion of a graduate degree in programs for which the dissertation/thesis forms such a large and integral component of degree completion. It was noted that the policy wording allows each department to make this determination independently.
